CDR Marcel Yon

Chief Executive Officer,
Cyber Innovation Hub,
Bundeswehr

Marcel “Otto” Yon is CEO of the Bundeswehr Cyber Innovation Hub. During the last 16 years, Yon built several start-ups, mainly in the field of computer vision and artificial intelligence, two of which he exited via stock markets.

Prior to becoming an entrepreneur, he was executive director of a private research & development center in artificial intelligence at University of Bochum and executive at investment bank Lazard advising on mergers & acquisitions and privatizations.

He co-founded the Entrepreneurs Organization in Europe, the world’s largest entrepreneurs’ organization, as well as the German Start-up Association. Yon studied business administration at University of Göttingen, UCLA, Berlin Institute of Technology and ESCP. He grew up in Germany and France.
