

NCI Agency Industry Conference and AFCEA TechNet International

Mr Michael Lithgow

Managing Vice President

GARTNER CONSULTING

Michael Lithgow leads the Gartner Public Sector Consulting Practice in EMEA assisting intergovernmental, national and state entities undertake major transformation in order to provide more secure, relevant and accessible services for citizens and creating the conditions for economic success.

Michael personally specialises in Defence and Security, having spent 33 years in the Defence environment and commanded at every level up to and including Brigade. His military career spanned leading defence research teams in the counter-terrorist environment, head of integrated programme management team, ACOS J6 responsible for design and build of UK's global infrastructure to support operations post 9/11 and CIO for Homeland Security. He has served in various theatres of operation as part of UN, NATO, Coalition and UK deployments.